

alegoff@bmhavocats.com
T : +33 (0)1 42 66 63 19

EXPERTISE

Labour law
Labour and social security law

LANGUAGES

French
German English

ASSOCIATIONS

CFACI (Vice-president)
DAV
Centre of German law
(Paris I
Panthéon-Sorbonne University)

AYMERIC LE GOFF

Partner

Admitted to the Paris Bar
Doctor of law

CAREER PROFILE

Aymeric Le Goff has been supporting French, German-speaking and other foreign companies (including American and Chinese companies) for nearly 15 years in their development and management of their employment issues. He advises investors on their establishment in France, on their acquisition or restructuring operations, as well as in all aspects of labour law (employee secondment, organisation of working time, occupational risks, relations with employee representative bodies, dismissals) and social security (litigation relating to incapacity or the URSSAF adjustment of social security contributions).

EDUCATION

Doctorate in Franco-German comparative law and DEA in comparative public law, from the Universities of Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne and Berlin, 2004

Master's degree in private law (business options) from the University of Caen

Researcher in German and French law at the Max Planck Institute in Heidelberg, 1998-1999

Professor at the Universities of Cergy-Pontoise and Düsseldorf