German Lawyer (München)

CAREER PROFILE

Christophe Gronen provides support to construction companies as well as property owners and investors in real estate transactions for more than 15 years, from the project development stage to the acceptance of the works, and represents these clients in the context of their litigations.

He is accustomed to working in international and multicultural contexts, and his ability to immerse himself in a variety of often very technical professional environments has enabled him to develop privileged relationships with a clientele composed of multinational groups and SME/SMI based abroad.
